An E.G.M. must also be called by the President upon receipt by the Council of written requests by one-quarter of all members eligible to vote. At least two (2) weeks' notice shall be given of an Extraordinary General Meeting. The notice of the meeting shall provide the date, time and place of the meeting and shall be sent to all members by the Secretary.

Sec. 5

At least one-tenth of the members eligible to vote at a General Meeting shall form a quorum. In the event of there being no quorum at the commencement of a General Meeting, the meeting shall be adjourned for half an hour. If the number then present is still insufficient to form a quorum, those present shall be considered a quorum, but those members present at such General Meeting shall have no power to amend any part of this Constitution.

Sec. 6

Any member who wishes to place an item on the agenda of a General Meeting may do so provided he/she gives notice to the Secretary one (1) week before the meeting is due to be held.

Sec. 7

Except as otherwise required by law or this Constitution, members eligible to vote at General Meetings may vote in person or by proxy. Members may submit personal votes either at a meeting or by mail, in the form and manner prescribed from time to time by the Council. All proxies shall be executed in writing, in the form and manner prescribed from time to time by the Council, and signed by the member granting the proxy.

Sec. 8

Except as otherwise required by law or this Constitution, all matters at a General Meeting shall be decided by a majority vote of the members present (in person or by proxy).

ARTICLE VII

Dissolution of Society

Sec. 1

SEAPEX shall not be dissolved except with the consent of not less than three-fifths (3/5) of SEAPEX members eligible to vote and resident in Singapore. This consent may be acquired either in person, or by proxy at a general meeting convened for the purpose, or by way of postal vote.

Sec. 2

In the event of SEAPEX being dissolved, all debts and liabilities leally incurred on its behalf shall be fully discharged and the remaining assets and funds, if any, shall be transferred to a bona fide society or societies, or other approved organizations having professional objectives similar to those of SEAPEX. The recipient(s) of these SEAPEX funds shall be decided upon by majority vote of the Council.

Sec. 3

A certificate of dissolution shall be given to the Singapore Registrar of Societies within seven (7) days of the dissolution of SEAPEX.

ARTICLE VIII

Amendments

Sec. 1

Amendments to this Constitution may be proposed by the Council or by written request from at least ten (10) voting members of the Society.

Sec. 2

No amendment to this Constitution shall be passed except at a General Meeting and with the consent of two-thirds (2/3) of the voting members present at such General Meeting (in person or by proxy).

Sec. 3

No Amendments shall come into force without the prior sanction of the Singapore Registrar of Societies.

ARTICLE IX

Dues and Payments

Sec. 1

The fiscal year of the Society shall extend from 1 October to 30 September of the following year.

Sec. 2

Membership payments are due on October 1 of each calendar year. New members joining SEAPEX before June 1 in any calendar year shall pay full membership dues for that year. New members joining SEAPEX on or after June 1 in any calendar year will be fully paid members till October 1 of the following year.

Sec. 3

The annual dues for Active Members shall be prescribed from time to time by the Council. Such dues may be reviewed and adjusted periodically by the Council, but changes to membership dues are limited to a maximum of 20% increase per annum. At each member's option, membership dues may be paid to SEAPEX in Singapore Dollar funds at an exchange rate determined by the Council.

Sec. 4

If the Council determines that such costs are reasonable and necessary, SEAPEX shall be entitled to charge fees for publications produced by SEAPEX and for participation in events organised by SEAPEX, including Conferences, Conventions and social meetings of members. Members shall be entitled to pay a discounted fee in respect of such publications and events.

ARTICLE X

Resignation/Suspension/Expulsion

Sec. 1

Any member may resign from SEAPEX at any time. Such resignation shall be in writing to the Secretary or the President. No refunds for membership dues already paid will be made.

Sec. 2

Any member of SEAPEX, regardless of their class of membership, is subject to expulsion for just cause upon a majority vote of the Council. Expulsion for just cause shall include, but not be limited to, dismissal for engaging in conduct inconsistent with: (a) the objectives of SEAPEX as defined in Article II of this Constitution; or (b) any policies adopted by the Council pursuant to this Constitution.

Sec.3

The Council may remove a Council Member from his/her position on the Council for just cause. Removal for just cause shall include, but not be limited to, removal for failure to attend the requisite number of meetings without explanation, as provided by Article IV, Section 8, and failure to maintain membership of SEAPEX.

Sec. 4

Any member who is in arrears for payment of dues ninety (90) days after they are payable, shall be suspended from SEAPEX. However, their membership shall be reinstated immediately upon receipt of the arrears if received within the subsequent ninety (90) day period. An additional 10% late payment fee shall be levied on any payments received after such one hundred and eighty (180) day period. The name of any member more than six (6) months in arrears shall be removed from the current SEAPEX membership roll.

ARTICLE XI

Prohibitions

Sec. 1

Gambling for any kind, whether for stakes or not; or the introduction of materials for gambling, drug taking and people of bad character are prohibited on SEAPEX's premises or during any meetings or sponsored functions of SEAPEX.

Sec. 2

The funds of SEAPEX shall not be used to pay the fines of members who have been convicted in the Court of Law.

Sec. 3

SEAPEX shall not engage in any trade union activity as defined in any written law relating to trade unions for the time being in force in Singapore.

Sec. 4

SEAPEX shall not hold any lottery, whether confined to its members or not, in the name of SEAPEX or its officers, Council or members.

Sec. 5

SEAPEX shall not indulge in any political activity or allow its funds and/or premises to be used for political purposes.

Sec. 6

SEAPEX shall not raise funds from the public for whatever purposes without the prior approval in writing of the Assistant Director Operations, Licensing Division, Singapore Police Force and other relevant authorities.
